WATERWAYS JOURNAL WIMOS 40 UNDER 40 MEMBERS

"As a WIMO's member, I have been introduced to so many strong people and have been given the opportunity to participate in new networking events."

Kristen Stojakovich
Campbell Transportation Company, Inc.

"WIMOs has been able to create a space for women in maritime to network and grow professionally, but also to connect on a personal level through shared experiences. 500 of us coming together to support each other is really empowering."

Kelsie Brien
McDonough Marine

"In my short time as a member, I have been able to put faces to people that I interact with regularly and I have been able to reconnect with people that I met as a child from when my mother worked in the industry."

Genelle Perez-Sandi
Sabine Surveyors, Ltd.

"I could not be more grateful for an amazing group of women who teach me about various aspects of the industry and give me the confidence that it takes to succeed as a woman in such a male-dominated environment."

Merritt Parsons
Louisiana CAT

"WIMOs has also been a great tool in expanding my knowledge in the maritime industry as we have visited shipyards, terminals and have had several lunch and learns where various industry topics have been discussed. WIMOs has also hosted online seminars for its members that have provided the tools needed to promote self-empowerment and development."

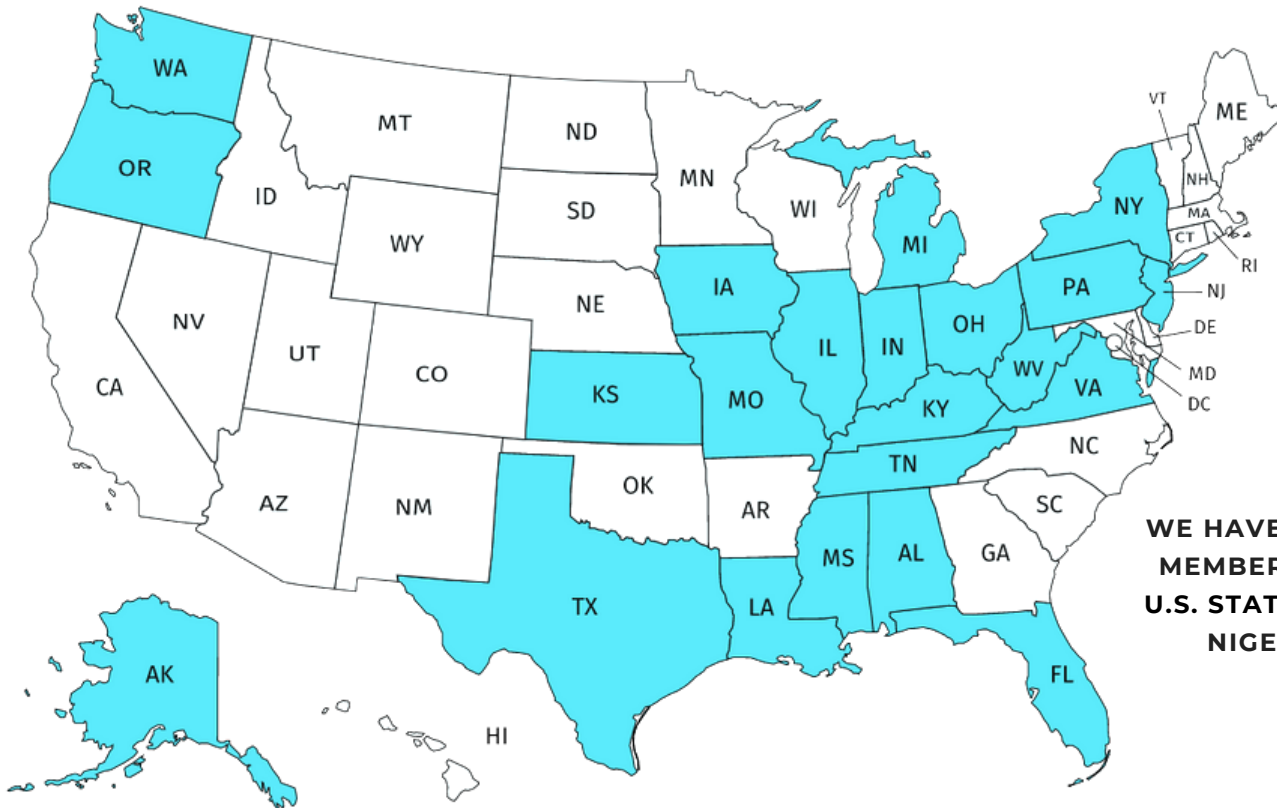

Norabel Matamoros
Kirby Offshore Marine

Now in its fifth year, the IMX 40 Under 40 Award recognizes young professionals for their hard work and dedication to the inland marine industry. The award is presented to 40 men and women under the age of 40 who have made outstanding contributions to the inland marine transportation industry in a variety of fields.
